

MCEAP 2022 Elder Abuse Summit Agenda

Virtual Event - May 17 & 19, 2022

DAY TWO: Thursday, May 19

1:00–1:05	Welcome Lieutenant Patrick Hood of the Maine State Police, Co-Chair of the Maine Council for Elder Abuse Prevention
1:05–1:55	Sexual Violence & Older Adults Katie Kondrat, Equity & Access Coordinator, Maine Coalition Against Sexual Assault Dave White, Training Program Manager, DHHS/Office of Aging and Disability Services Join Katie and Dave to learn about the prevalence and impact of sexual violence among older Mainers. They will review indicators of sexual violence and considerations for responding to disclosures, and explore the cultural and systemic contributors to low numbers of identification and reporting.
1:55-2:10	Break
2:10-3:45	Maine’s Multidisciplinary Responses to Sexual Violence in Later Life Moderator: Katie Kondrat, MECASA Panelists: Jamie Demers, Sexual Assault Prevention & Response Services; Dave White, Office of Aging and Disability Services; Michelle Markie, SAFE St. Joseph’s Hospital; John Burke, Prosecutor, Healthcare Crimes Unit, Office of Maine Attorney General; and Heath Langevin, Detective, Healthcare Crimes Unit, Office of Maine Attorney General This multidisciplinary panel will identify the different supports and services for older adults who experience sexual violence, while exploring places for more collaboration and outreach. Learn more about the landscape of responses to sexual violence in later life and the best way to connect the people with whom you’re working with supports and services.
3:45-4:00	Overview of MCEAP’s Plan for World Elder Abuse Awareness Day and Closing Remarks Lieutenant Patrick Hood of the Maine State Police, Co-Chair of the Maine Council for Elder Abuse Prevention

Session Descriptions

Training: Sexual Violence & Older Adults

Katie Kondrat, Equity & Access Coordinator, Maine Coalition Against Sexual Assault

Dave White, Training Program Manager, DHHS/Office of Aging and Disability Services

Join Katie and Dave to learn about the prevalence and impact of sexual violence among older Mainers. They will also review indicators of sexual violence, considerations when responding to disclosures, and the cultural and systemic contributors to the low numbers of identification and reporting.

Panel: Maine's Multidisciplinary Approaches to Sexual Violence in Later Life

Moderator: Katie Kondrat, Maine Coalition Against Sexual Assault

Panelists: Jamie Demers, Sexual Assault Prevention & Response Services; Dave White, Office of Aging and Disability Services; Michelle Markie, SAFE St. Joseph's Hospital; John Burke, Prosecutor, HealthCare Crimes Unit, Office of Maine Attorney General; and Heath Langevin, Detective, Healthcare Crimes Unit, Office of Maine Attorney General

This multidisciplinary panel will identify the different supports and services for older adults who experience sexual violence, while exploring places for more collaboration and outreach. Learn more about the landscape of responses to sexual violence in later life and the best way to connect the people with whom you're working with supports and services.